

Climate change litigation in the German and European perspective

Unit	Date	Time	Content	Lecturer
1	Saturday 08.06	10:00- 11:30	Introduction to climate change – a risk profile <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to climate change as a problem of the 21st Century • Climate science • Introduction to Climate Change Litigation 	Noemi Simon
2	Saturday 15.06.	10:00- 11:30	State liability for climate change between legislation and jurisdiction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Environmental liability in International Law • Sustainable developments in international Investment Law and policy related to renewable energy, climate change mitigation and adaption • International and European agreements and liability issues • Liability of EU Member States under EU Law • The role of courts in climate protection and the separation of powers • Evaluation: The legitimate functions of courts in climate protection • Conclusion 	Noemi Simon
3	Saturday 22.06	10:00- 11:30	Public climate change litigation in the EU and Germany <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction • Constitutional foundations in the EU • Jurisprudence of the European courts • Case studies • Legal problems • EU climate policy and public climate change litigation • Public climate change litigation in Germany 	Moritz Böbel
4	Saturday 06.07.	10:00- 11:30	Private climate change litigation in Tort Law <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction and facts • Conflict of Laws • (Successful) Reduction claim in the Netherlands: Case study „Shell” • Reduction claims in Germany: Case studies “VW”, “BMW”, “Mercedes”, “Wintershall” • Mitigation claim: Case study “RWE” • Conclusion and outlook 	Theresa Hössl
5	Saturday 13.07.	10:00- 11:30	Current trends in private climate change litigation – Quo vadis? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate Law • Consumer Protection Law 	Theresa Hössl

6	Saturday 20.07.	10:00- 11:30	The role of business human rights in climate change litigation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to business human rights • Business human rights in a multi-level system • Business human rights in climate change litigation • Outlook 	Moritz Böbel
---	--------------------	-----------------	---	--------------

Climate change litigation in the Latin American perspective

Unit	Date	Time	Content	Lecturer
1	Tuesday 30.07	13:30- 15:00	Climate change litigation and legal framework Climate litigation concept and climate justice: a perspective from the South <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Climate change legal regime • Climate change laws in LAC • Climate change act in Chile 	Ezio Costa
2	Tuesday 06.08.	13:30- 15:00	Human rights and climate litigation Human Rights and climate change in Latin America: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Right to healthy environmental • Eco-centric perspective: Colombian experience • CIDH jurisprudence 	Pilar Morgara
3	Tuesday 13.08.	13:30- 15:00	Human rights and climate litigation Water access right and jurisprudence: Cases <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nogales case • Petorca case 	Jorge Ossandón
4	Tuesday 20.08.	13:30- 15:00	Environmental forums in Chile Environmental tribunals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Origins and institutional design • Jurisdiction • Climate change cases 	Jorge Aranda
5	Tuesday 27.08.	13:30- 15:00	Liability for environmental damage in South America <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctrinal elements of environmental liability • Environmental remediation 	Ximena Insunza
6	Tuesday 03.09.	13:30- 15:00	Liability for environmental damage in Chile <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal history of environmental liability in Chile • Challenges of the Chilean model: standing and causation • Alternative approaches to environmental remediation 	Brigitte Leal